How Mistakes of the Past Are Now Avoided-Prof. Pheips of Dartmouth ave to the World a Remedy That

> Makes the Blood Pure and the Nerves Strong-Why the Best Physicians Advise Its Use.

There is a great deal of talk about purifying the blood. There was a time not many years ago when people thought that the simple purifying of the blood was all that was necessary, but the world has advanced. Physicians tell us that first of all the nervous system, which is nearer life than anything else, must be preserved in order to retain health and lengthen life. This is common sense as well as

The remedy that physicians now pre-

The remedy that physicians now prescribe to strengthen the nerves, as well as purify the blood, is Paine's celery compound, the prescription that made the fame of Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college. Patients who are weak and weary, sleepless or despondent or dyspeptic, have been advised so often to use Paine's celery compound to ward off disease and despondency that it has come to be known everywhere, by the public as well as the medical profession and the druggists, as a specific in such cases.
